

I do not agree with lifting restrictions on the telephone call block for Consumer Bankers Association. If I wanted to be bothered by these people I would look them up. Some of you must not have ever been bothered by them or you would not want it lifted either. I will have to unhook my phone during the day which is infringing on my rights.